

Planning Report September 2013

Applications

Over the four week period there has been five applications to the CEC planning authority:

- Agilent Site - application for approval of matters specified in 11/00995/PPP QDCC will be submitting our comments on this by 27th September
- Alteration of existing loft space at Shore Road
- Renewal of consent for residential development at Avon House, Loch Road
- 2 applications for an extension at Dundas Home Farm - 1 as List category B and another identical application as List category BDELE

Decision List

The authority granted five applications and one refusal(which was granted the following week) also there was on Permitted Development

- Alterations to a property at Easter Dalmeny - was refused but then granted the following week
- Sea defences for Barnbogle Castle
- Erection of chamber over electrical equipment - Permitted development
- Punch Taverns signage
- Home extension - Ashburnham Loan
- Alterations to flat at 2 High Street

One application was withdrawn by Agilent Technologies 11/01162/FUL

Diane Job

Planning sub-committee